WHAT TO DO IN RESPONSE TO TODAY'S MESSAGE:

1. Things to Think About:
 - Realize that there is no sin you are incapable of committing, remember sin's devastating consequences, Repent Wholeheartedly
 - See if there is any log in your own eye to remove before you try to remove the speck out of someone else's eye (Matt 7:5)
 - Think through some protections you can set up to keep you from falling into temptation
2. Things to Pray About:
 - Thank God for His saving & sanctifying Grace. Apart from His grace all of us would commit the "worst" of sins
 - Read & Pray through Psalm 51 & 1 John 1
3. Videos to Watch:
 - Watch the Bible Project Video on Khata – "Sin" <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aNOZ7ocLD74>
 - Watch the Bible Project Video on Awon – "Iniquity" <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w1zkwkI9oAw>
 - Watch the Bible Project Video on Pesha – "Transgression" <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cq-r9FFN5ew>
4. Other Next Steps to Take:
 - Invite someone into your life who will truly keep you accountable
 - Have mercy & compassion on your brother or sister who has fallen into sin (Gal 6:1-5, James 5:19-20)
 - Listen to these Repentance Songs: <https://worship-songs-resources.worshiptogether.com/music/Repentance-Songs>

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION:

1. What stood out to you most from the message?
2. How can someone sin as badly as David and still be called a man after God's own heart? (For Help, see this article on "GotQuestions.org" <https://www.gotquestions.org/man-after-God-heart.html>)
3. David's newborn would not be the only son who would die because of the transgression of others. Read through the narrative & see what elements point you to Christ & the message of the Gospel.
4. Have you ever had a spiritual "hero" who fell into sin? How did it impact your walk?
5. Does it encourage you or discourage you when a spiritual "hero" such as David falls into sin? Explain your answer.
