Q U E S T I O N S F O R R E F L E C T I O N

1. What stood out to you most from the message?
2. If you are married, what is something you appreciate about your husband or wife? If you have never been married, what is a quality that you hope your husband or wife will have?
3. If you are divorced or widowed, how did Jesus minister to you through his word today? How can we especially pray for, encourage, or support you?
4. What is a godly example of marriage in Scripture that you appreciate?
5. Who is someone you know that is a good example of what it means to be a godly husband or a godly wife? What specifically brings them to mind? (Consider Ephesians 5:22-33)
6. Read 1 Peter 3:1-2. Wives – have you experienced the power of submission making a difference in your marriage? What has that looked like for you?
7. Read 1 Peter 3:7. Husbands – how have you learned to live with a better understanding of your wives? How has that made a difference for you?
8. Read 1 Peter 3:23-25. How do these verses about Jesus relate to our marriages? What difference has Jesus made in your marriage?
9. If you are married, what advice could you give to those who are not married? If you are not married, what questions do you have for those who are married?
10. What would it look like to aim for a “cross-shaped marriage” today? This week?

So, what shape is your marriage in?
