Discussion Questions:

1. John 1:1-18 reads as a dramatic prologue. What is the most dramatic verse (or verses) to you, and why?
2. What are some unbiblical ways that verses 1-2 have been understood?

➔ Look up Colossians 1:16-17 and Psalm 33:6 for additional verses display the Word (Jesus) in creation.
3. Describe how John 1:14 paints the picture of Jesus as the bridge between God and man? How can this verse be used to share the Gospel?
4. Describe the significance of the Incarnation in relation to verses 16-17 and the grace we have received?
5. How does “coming and worshipping” help our hearts behold Him? What other competitions for your heart exist this Christmas season? How can public worship this season help in this competition against secularism and distraction from the real reason for Christmas?
6. Think about John the Baptist and His mission. How can you apply the example of His mission to your life, specifically this Christmas season?
7. How can you use an occasion in your calendar to bear witness to Jesus this Christmas season – think of and share a specific way.
