GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What are some initial thoughts after hearing the sermon?
- In what ways in your life can you be living in a way that doesn't consider God?
- What can you be tempted to place confidence in for security or control in life?
- When you hear the phrase "God is sovereign over all things" what do you think about that? Does that bring comfort or discomfort?
- Why is it so hard to say no to our own desires and yes to God's?
- What does it look like for you to "do God's will"?
- When you consider the three things to do to know God's will, which of those three do you need to do first in your own life?
- Consider who in your life might need to hear God speak to them through these verses.
